The Pure Water from the Swiss Valais Alps

The source of all our Cabine Exclusive formulations

Delivered directly from our own alpine source, it is delivered directly from the mountain to the heart of our laboratory.

It is rich in minerals from the precious crystals of the Swiss Alps.

Furthermore, this pure and “clean” water possesses exceptional cosmetic properties :

1. It reinforces the efficiency of the actives and the formulas,
2. It is enriched with minerals and natural oligo-elements,
3. Its composition is close to the water contained in the skin's epidermal layer which allows it to respect the skin's ecology.

Made in Switzerland

Actives and Formulations

Phyto-botany from the Valais, plant biotechnology and aromatology.

1. The production is made directly with an optimal concentration of actives in both quantity and in %.
2. All the formulations are paraben-free and produced according to strict cosmetic industry norms with environmentally friendly technologies.
3. Product testing are systematic (efficiency, security, water activity, challenge test,).
4. Our product range is diverse, sensorially appealing, with multiple fresh scents.
5. The textures are adaptable and change when in contact with skin or at the hands of a professional.

2. Application Method

CABINE EXCLUSIVE
PROFESSIONAL

Made in Switzerland

The Application Method

P.I.R.[®]

An exclusive technical know-how developed for all Treatments Institute and the professional Cabine Exclusive products.

This specific method allows the esthetician to preserve the integrity of the cutaneous tissues and to enhance the active's penetration.

This method is used in each step of the treatment with the hands or cottons, for all cosmetic textures, on the face and neck.

P.

I.

R.

1. Pressure

Drainage of the subcutaneous facial muscles

2. Impregnation

Tissue stimulation & Activation of the actives

3. Rotations

Myo-Cellular Activity & active assimilation

The Application Method

P.I.R.[®]

01. PRESSURE

1. Description

The slow and deep application of pressure with the entire surface of the hand (the natural weight of the hand) on the face, neck and décolleté.

The application is done symmetrically, without moving the tissues in order to apply the product evenly.

2. Technique

Warm up or lather the product between both hands depending on the texture of the product (gel, cream, fluid...) to bring it to the ideal skin temperature and promote the penetration of the active ingredients.

3. Physiological Effects

The beneficial effects are : profound relaxation which promotes the blood and lymphatic circulation, the skin feels revitalized and it is detoxified.

4. Application

Before the application of the product, let the client smell the products to optimize the action of the actives during the treatment.

1x each pressure on each zone of the face and neck for 15 seconds.

The Application Method

P.I.R.[®]

02. IMPREGNATION

1. Description

Small and delicate pressures, symmetrical and quick, done with the fingertips close together (without the thumb), covering the face, neck and décolleté, to incorporate and activate the product into the skin.

Each pressure should be done by unrolling the fingers (like opening a book).

2. Technique

Start from the forehead to the contours of the eyes, the cheeks, the jaw and finish with the neck and décolleté.

(From the center to the outwards corners of the face and neck).

3. Physiological Effects

- The acceleration of microcirculation
- An improved tissue oxygenation
- The activation and/or penetration of the actives

4. Application

1x each pressure by covering the treatment zone. Each part of the skin should be touched.

45 seconds

For the massage step, perform the movements of pressure slowly and deeply

The Application Method

P.I.R.[®]

03. ROTATIONS

1. Description

By performing small light rhythmic circles with the fingertips (without the thumbs) simultaneously from the face to the neck and décolleté, in a clockwise motion.

2. Technique

Starting from the forehead, to the left cheek, chin, neck, décolleté and then going back up on the reverse side of the face, ending with the right side of the forehead.

3. Physiological Effects

- Muscle relaxation
- Smoothing facial features

4. Application

1x each circle by covering the entirety of the treatment zone. Each part of the skin should be touched.

60 seconds

Adapt the rhythm according to the advancement of the treatment :

- Quickly in Step 1,
- Very slowly in Step 2,
- Slow at the end of Step 3.

Treatment Institute (T.I.) FACE

1 recipe, 1 result for every need

The Cabine Exclusive Treatments for the Institute (T.I.) are complete beauty protocols for the face that challenge the codes of esthetics in 3 steps : the 3 STEPS (Surface Treatment – the In-Depth Treatment – the Final Treatment). They consist in the successive application of specific cosmetics that meet the requirements of all skin types, all ages, all throughout the year with the changing of the seasons. Each product is applied with the P.I.R® technique, which preserves the integrity of the cutaneous tissues and enhances the actives. Delivered in turnkey sets, the T.I.'s allow to optimise the treatment time, the consumption of the cosmetics, their effectiveness and their application.
